- I. Computation of time under this order and under any notice of any scheduling order or notice in this cause shall be in conformity and accordance with Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 6(a).
- II. DISCOVERY. This Court will not order discovery to take place subsequent to the discovery cutoff date. Parties may agree to extend the discovery deadline by filing a stipulation with the Court; no motion is required. Extensions or adjournments of all other dates will only be considered upon the filing of a timely written motion.
- III. WITNESSES. The deadline for exchange of witness lists refers to all witnesses, lay and expert.
- IV. DISPOSITIVE MOTIONS. When filing motions for summary judgment, parties shall proceed in accordance with the following:
  - A. Before filing a motion for summary judgment or responding to such a motion, the parties are urged to familiarize themselves with Celotex Corp. v. Catrett, 477 U.S. 317 (1986), Anderson v. Liberty Lobby, Inc., 477 U.S. 242 (1986), and Matsushita Electric Industrial Co., Ltd. v. Zenith Radio Corp., 475 U.S. 574 (1986). An excellent summary of these cases appears in Street v. J.C. Bradford & Co., 886 F.2d 1472 (6th Cir. 1989). See also Schwarzer, Summary Judgment under the Federal Rules: Defining Genuine Issues of Material Fact, 99 F.R.D. 465 (1984).
  - B. Facts stated in the statement of material facts must be supported with citations to either the pleadings, interrogatories, admissions, depositions, affidavits, or documentary exhibits.
  - C. Counsel are discouraged from employing elaborate boilerplate recitations of the summary judgment standard or lengthy string citations in support of well established legal principles. Instead, counsel should focus their analysis on a few well chosen cases, preferably recent and from controlling courts. Where unpublished opinions or opinions published only in a specialty reporter are cited, copies of the cases must be submitted along with the brief.
- V. STIPULATION FOR MEDIATION must be submitted by the date set. Referral to mediation panel will be made following receipt of the stipulation.
- VI. ORAL ARGUMENT ON MOTIONS. Attorneys who do not respond to motions in a timely fashion will not be permitted to argue before the Court during oral argument.

VII. FINAL PRETRIAL CONFERENCE AND FINAL PRETRIAL ORDER. The Court has established a date for a final pretrial conference. Following is the procedure counsel are to utilize to prepare for the final pretrial conference and the final pretrial order:

- A. Counsel for all parties are directed to confer in person (face to face) at their earliest convenience in order to (1) reach any possible stipulations narrowing the issues of law and fact, (2) deal with non-stipulated issues in the manner stated in this paragraph and (3) exchange documents that will be offered in evidence at the trial. It shall be the duty of counsel for plaintiff to initiate that meeting and the duty of other counsel to respond to plaintiff's counsel and to offer their full cooperation and assistance. If, after reasonable effort, any party cannot obtain the cooperation of other counsel, it shall be his or her duty to communicate with the Court. Counsels' meeting shall be had sufficiently in advance of the date of the scheduled Conference with the Court so that counsel for each party can furnish all other counsel with a statement of the real issues the party will offer evidence to support, eliminating any issues that might appear in the pleadings about which there is no real controversy and including in such statement issues of law as well as ultimate issues of fact from the standpoint of each party. Counsel for plaintiff then will prepare a draft final pretrial order and submit it to opposing counsel, after which all counsel will jointly submit<sup>1</sup> the original and one copy of the final draft of the proposed pretrial order to the Judge's chambers (or in open court, if so directed) on the date fixed for submission. All instructions contained within this order must be followed carefully; they will be binding on the parties at trial. If there are any pending motions requiring determination in advance of trial,<sup>2</sup> they should specifically be called to the Court's attention not later than the date of submission of the final pretrial order.

The final pretrial order should provide for the signature of the Court, which, when signed, will become an Order of the Court. AN ORIGINAL, JUDGE'S COPY AND SUFFICIENT COPIES FOR ALL COUNSEL ARE TO BE SUBMITTED TO CHAMBERS ON OR BEFORE THE DUE DATE.

The proposed pretrial order shall strictly comply with the provisions and requirements of Local Rule 16.2, except as this Court may otherwise provide.

- B. Parties shall attend the final pretrial conference along with the attorneys who will try the case. Those attorneys will familiarize themselves with the pretrial rules and will come to the conference with full authority to accomplish the purposes of Rule 16 (including simplifying the issues, expediting the trial and saving expense to litigants). Counsel shall be prepared to discuss compromise settlement possibilities at the conference without the necessity of obtaining confirmatory authorization from their clients. Parties themselves must attend the final pretrial conference unless the Court has agreed to other arrangements prior to the date of the conference.

VIII. At least ONE WEEK prior to beginning of trial term all counsel shall furnish to the court the following:

1. In jury cases, any requests for VOIR DIRE and proposed JOINT JURY INSTRUCTIONS. In jury cases, the parties are hereby ordered to meet and confer prior to trial to discuss jury instructions. No later than one week prior to the first day of trial, the parties are to file with the court a single set of proposed, stipulated jury instructions. The Court will provide proposed opening and closing instructions, and counsel are responsible for all instructions related to their specific claims or defenses. All such instructions are to be typewritten and double spaced and shall contain references to authority (e.g., "Devitt and Blackmar, Section 11.08"). In addition, each party shall separately file any additional proposed instructions to which any other party objects. The parties must make a concerted, good faith effort to narrow the areas of dispute and to discuss each instruction with a view to reaching agreement as to an acceptable form.
2. In non-jury cases, proposed FINDINGS OF FACT and CONCLUSIONS OF LAW.
3. A statement of claims or defenses, no longer than two pages, suitable to be read to the jury during opening instructions.

LR 16.2 Joint Final Pretrial Order

(a) Joint Final Pretrial Order. The parties shall furnish a joint final pretrial order in every civil case at, or if the judge requires, before the final pretrial conference.

(NOTE: THIS COURT REQUIRES THAT THE JOINT FINAL PRETRIAL ORDER BE FURNISHED AT LEAST ONE WEEK BEFORE THE TIME SET FOR THE FINAL PRETRIAL CONFERENCE.)

This joint final pretrial order shall fulfill the parties' disclosure obligations under Fed.R.Civ.P. 26(a)(3), unless the Judge orders otherwise. All objections specified in Rule 26(a)(3) shall be made in this order. Counsel for plaintiff(s) or a plaintiff without counsel shall convene a conference for all parties to confer and collaborate in formulating a concise joint final pretrial order. Counsel for plaintiff(s) or a plaintiff without counsel shall compile the order. Counsel for all parties and any party without counsel shall approve and sign the order. Counsel for plaintiff(s) or a plaintiff without counsel shall submit an original and one copy of the order to the assigned Judge for approval and adoption. The order shall provide for the signature of the Court and, when signed and filed in the Clerk's Office, becomes an order of the Court, superseding the pleadings and governing the course of trial unless modified by further order. The pretrial order shall not be a vehicle for adding claims or defenses. The order will not be filed in the Clerk's Office until the Judge has signed it.

(b) Contents of Order. The joint final pretrial order shall contain, under numbered and captioned headings, the following:

(1) Jurisdiction. The parties shall state the basis for Federal Court jurisdiction and whether jurisdiction is contested by any party.

(2) Plaintiffs' Claims. The statement of the claim or claims of plaintiffs shall include legal theories.

(3) Defendants' Claims. The statement of the defenses or claims of defendants, or third parties, shall include legal theories.

(4) Stipulation of Facts. The parties shall state, in separately numbered paragraphs, all uncontested facts.

(5) Issues of Fact to be Litigated.

(6) Issues of Law to be Litigated.

(7) Evidence Problems Likely to Arise at Trial. Include objections to exhibits and to the use of deposition testimony, including the objections required under Fed.R.Civ.P. 26(a)(3). The order shall list all motions in limine of which counsel or a party without counsel should reasonably be aware.

(8) Witnesses. Each party shall list all witnesses whom that party will call and all witnesses whom that party may call. This listing shall include, but is not limited to, the disclosures required under Fed.R.Civ.P. 26(a)(3)(A) and (B). A party may, without further notice, call a witness listed by another party as a "will call" witness. Except as permitted by the Court for good cause a party may not list a witness unless the witness was included on a witness list submitted under a prior order or has been deposed. The list shall state whether the witness is an expert and whether testimony will be offered by deposition. Only listed witnesses will be permitted to testify at trial, except for rebuttal witnesses whose testimony could not be reasonably anticipated before trial, or except for good cause shown. The provisions of Fed.R.Civ.P. 37(c)(1) shall apply to a failure to list a witness.

(9) Exhibits.<sup>3</sup> The parties shall number and list, with appropriate identification, each exhibit, including summaries, as provided in Fed.R.Civ.P. 26(a)(3)(C). Objections to listed exhibits must be stated in the joint pretrial order. Only listed exhibits will be considered for admission at trial, except for rebuttal exhibits which could not be reasonably anticipated before trial, or except for good cause shown. The provisions of Fed.R.Civ.P. 37(c)(1) shall apply to a failure to list an exhibit.

(10) Damages. The parties shall itemize all claimed damages and shall specify damages that can be calculated from objective data. The parties shall stipulate to those damages not in dispute.

(11) Trial.

(A) Jury or non-jury.

(B) Estimated length of trial.

(12) Settlement. Counsel or a party without counsel shall state that they have conferred and considered the possibility of settlement, giving the most recent place and date, and state the current status of negotiations and any plans for further discussions. They may state that they wish the Court to schedule a settlement conference.

(c) Failure to Cooperate. For failure to cooperate in preparing or submitting the joint final pretrial order or failure to comply strictly with the terms of the joint final pretrial order, the Court may dismiss claims, enter default judgment, refuse to permit witnesses to testify or to admit exhibits, assess costs and expenses, including attorney fees, or impose other appropriate sanctions.

(d) Filing of Trial Briefs, Findings and Instructions. The joint final pretrial order shall further provide that trial briefs, proposed findings of facts and conclusions of law in nonjury cases or requests for instructions in jury cases shall be filed on the first day of trial.

(NOTE: THIS COURT REQUIRES THAT TRIAL BRIEFS, MOTIONS IN LIMINE, PROPOSED FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW IN NON-JURY CASES, OR REQUESTS FOR INSTRUCTIONS IN JURY CASES SHALL BE FILED ONE WEEK PRIOR TO THE TRIAL.

DEPOSITIONS MUST BE PURGED WITHIN ONE WEEK PRIOR TO TRIAL;
OBJECTIONS TO DEPOSITIONS WAIVED UNLESS RAISED BY MOTION
PRIOR TO TRIAL.)

(e) Additional Requirements. A Judge, in an appropriate case, may add additional requirements to the joint final pretrial order, or may suspend application of this Rule, in whole or in part.

(f) Juror Costs Attributable to Parties. Each party shall also acknowledge that the Court may assess juror expenses under LR 38.3.

1. Counsel for plaintiff has primary responsibility for preparation of the final pretrial order and, in that respect, for its submission to opposing counsel in ample time for revision and timely filing. Nonetheless, full cooperation and assistance of all other counsel are required for proper preparation of the final pretrial order and must therefore be extended.
2. This includes motions in limine, disputes over specific jury instructions or the admissibility of any evidence at trial upon which the parties desire to present authorities and argument to the Court.
3. COMMENT: Under LR 16.2(b)(9), any objections based on foundation or authenticity will be deemed waived if not raised before trial.
