The Law Clerk Position:

Judge Goldsmith is accepting applications for one full time Law Clerk position to begin in or around August 2023 and end in or around August 2025. Judge Goldsmith seeks the most qualified individuals who have demonstrated outstanding writing and analytical skills and possess the personal qualities that will allow them to work well in a team environment.

Qualifications:

Applicants must have a Juris Doctor degree. By the start of the clerkship, applicants must have at least one year of (i) post-law school legal work experience or (ii) significant pre-law school work experience, in either an academic or public policy setting (e.g., graduate program, college level teaching, government service), or a position that included substantial writing responsibilities.

Diversity of experience and background is considered to be a positive factor in selecting Law Clerks.

Procedures for Applying:

To be assured consideration, applicants must apply for this position using the Online System for Clerkship Application and Review (OSCAR) system, the link is provided below. Make sure to follow the instructions provided on that site: <https://oscar.uscourts.gov>

Candidates applying from schools that use unconventional grading systems should provide an explanation of the grading system, in the appropriate space provided in the OSCAR application. Judge Goldsmith encourages applicants to use their cover letters as an opportunity to explain how their backgrounds—personal or professional—contribute to their ability to assist in fulfilling the judiciary’s mission

Only those applicants selected for interview will be contacted. All interviews will be held by videoconference. Travel reimbursement in connection with the selection process and/or relocation is not authorized.
