LR 7.1 Motion Practice

(h) Motions for Rehearing or Reconsideration.

(1) ~~Time. Subject to LR 59.1, a motion for rehearing or reconsideration must be filed within 14 days after entry of the judgment or order.~~ Final Orders and Judgments. Parties seeking reconsideration of final orders or judgments must file a motion under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 59(e) or 60. The court will not grant reconsideration of such an order or judgment under this rule.

(2) Non-dispositive Orders. Motions for reconsideration of non-dispositive orders are disfavored. They must be filed within 14 days after entry of the order and may be brought only upon the following grounds:

(A) The court made a mistake, correcting the mistake changes the outcome of the prior decision, and the mistake was based on the record and law before the court at the time of its prior decision;

(B) An intervening change in controlling law warrants a different outcome;
or

(C) New facts warrant a different outcome and the new facts could not have been discovered before the prior decision.

~~(3) Grounds. Generally, and without restricting the court's discretion, the court will not grant motions for rehearing or reconsideration that merely present the same issues ruled upon by the court, either expressly or by reasonable implication. The movant must not only demonstrate a palpable defect by which the court and the parties and other persons entitled to be heard on the motion have been misled but also show that correcting the defect will result in a different disposition of the case. No motion for reconsideration shall in any manner advance any oral or written argument (A) made in support of or in opposition to the original motion, and (B) that was addressed by the court.~~

~~(2 4) No Response and No Hearing Allowed. No response to the motion and no oral argument are permitted unless the court orders otherwise.~~

(5) A motion to reconsider an order denying a motion for reconsideration may not be filed.
