

Scheduling Order

The court's written scheduling order typically establishes deadlines for court-sanctioned discovery, exchange of witness lists, dispositive motions, and submission of exhibit lists and jury instructions. Dates will be set for the final pretrial conference and for the trailing docket assignment.