

Practicing Before This Court

In order to practice in this Court, an attorney must be a member of the bar of the Eastern District of Michigan, as provided by Local Rule 83.20. Pro hac vice admission is not permitted.

In addition, this Court strictly enforces Local Rule 83.20(f), which provides that any member of the bar of this Court who is not an active member of the State Bar of Michigan must have local counsel.