

Courtesy Copies

A courtesy copy of all motions and briefs must be sent to the chambers via first class mail the same day the document is e-filed, or hand-delivered not later than the next business day after the document is e-filed. The courtesy copy should consist of the actual e-filed document and contain the electronic file stamp on the top of each page. It may be bound in any manner other than a prong fastener. Exhibits must be tabbed and the relevant portions highlighted.
