General Matters: Judge's Courtesy Copy Policy

Until further notice, courtesy copies shall not be submitted unless specifically requested by the Court. Parties will be contacted directly by chambers if a courtesy copy is required. In general, parties representing themselves are never required to file extra copies of their materials.