Criminal Cases: Discovery

Within ten (10) days of the arraignment, the Government's counsel and defense counsel must meet and confer to resolve and to minimize the issues in the case and to agree on a timetable and procedures for the pretrial disclosures required under Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 16. After the discovery conference, one or both parties may ask this Court to determine or to modify the time, place, manner, or other aspects of disclosure to facilitate trial preparation.