Standing Orders

A Notice of Scheduling Conference is mailed to each party after the filing of the Complaint and Answer, asking that each party be prepared to discuss the case and issues, subject matter jurisdiction, relationship to other cases, necessity of amendments to pleadings, the progress of discovery, mediation and motions.